

GENERAL ORDERS No. 7

RE: March 2021, Encampment

Main Presentation: This month we welcome back Jim Heinz. Jim will be presenting “The 1917 Milwaukee Police Bombing”. The story of the 1917 Milwaukee Police Bombing is a story one hundred years old ripped from today's headlines: Foreign terrorists, CSI, immigration and assimilation, the rise of socialism, a rise in white supremacist terrorism, a liberal Democratic college professor lawyer president succeeded by a conservative Republican accused of corruption and sexual misconduct, car bombs, deaths in police custody, sexual abuse by clergy, income inequality, restrictions on immigration from countries thought to produce terrorists, impeachment of government officials, the attempted assassination of prominent Americans, the conviction of innocent people, detention of immigrants in controversial conditions, government corruption, race riots, and a global pandemic.

The story involves the Kennedy family, Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt, Benito Mussolini, Sacco and Vanzetti, Clarence Darrow, Steven Avery, Donald Trump, the first commissioner of baseball, Emma Goldman, J. Edgar Hoover, Princess Grace of Monaco, Yogi Berra, Leonardo di Caprio, the birth of the ACLU, AOC and Bernie Sanders, Buster Keaton, a man named Guiliani, and a movie made in Milwaukee.

Jeff is a retired police officer and author. He has previously presented the MHRT on the topic of Medals of Honor. Please welcome Jim Heinz in this most interesting presentation.
