

GENERAL ORDERS No. 7

RE: March 2024 Meeting

Main Presentation: This month we welcome George Hesselberg. He will be providing a presentation titled Dead Lines Slices of Life from the Obit Beat. In a lively collection of feature obituaries and related news stories, longtime newspaper reporter George Hesselberg celebrates life, sharing the most fascinating stories that came from decades of covering the obit and public safety beats. In more than forty years at the Wisconsin State Journal, Hesselberg frequently found himself writing about fatal accidents, crime investigations, and the deaths of the wealthy, famous, or notorious. But he was most drawn to the curious, the unknown, and the unsung—the deaths that normally wouldn't make much of a splash, if any mention at all, in the news columns of a daily paper. Their stories are alternately amusing, sad, surprising, and profound. Together they speak to a shared human experience and inspire us to see the people around us with new eyes, valuing the lives while they are still being lived.

George Hesselberg is a retired reporter for the Wisconsin State Journal. He covered every beat, wrote hundreds of news obituaries of the famous and the not-so-famous, and was a columnist for eighteen years. In addition to his long career in journalism, he has worked in Wisconsin as a cheesemaker, stagehand, gravedigger, sign painter, and barn roofer. A native of Bangor, Wisconsin, Hesselberg graduated from the University of Wisconsin—Madison and studied philosophy, logic, and language at the University of Oslo. George will have books available for sale and signing.
