ROUNDTABLE

GENERAL ORDERS No. 4

RE: December 2016, Encampment

Welcome to the December 2016 meeting of the Madison History Roundtable.

Main Presentation: This month we welcome LTC (Ret) Harold M. Knudsen. His Army career spanned twenty five years of active duty service, and includes seven resident career artillery, command and staff Army schools and colleges. A combat veteran of Desert Storm, he performed extensive artillery fire planning in support of the US breakthrough of the Iraqi line and penetration into Iraq in 1991. He has also served in Iraq and Kuwait 2006 - 2008 during the Iraq Campaign as a Force Manager. His interest in James Longstreet began as a child, and expanded in Germany when considering and applying Longstreet's tactics in the training areas. His book: General James Longstreet the Confederacy's Most Modern General, draws heavily from 20th Century Army doctrine, field training, staff planning, command, and combat experience. LTC Harold Knudsen will be presenting "Modern Tactics and Operations of General Longstreet".
